

TAIWAN

Program Description: All About Adoptions Services Inc. networks with Alliance For Children for adoptions from Taiwan.

Children Available:

- Infants and young children up to 8 years of age are available.
- Children are tested for Hepatitis B, HIV and VDRL.
- Photos and medical updates of the child's progress are emailed to a family during the waiting time whenever possible.

General Adoptive Parent Requirements:

- Couples only.
- The minimum age limit for adopting from Taiwan is 30 years old.
- Parents under the age of 50 are eligible to adopt an infant.
- Parents who have reached the age of 50 or more will be evaluated on a case by case basis.
- Parents should be in good physical and mental health with no criminal history.
- Both parents must have college degrees, and minimum income requirements apply.

Process before travel

- Apply to INS for advanced approval to be eligible to adopt from Taiwan.
- Satisfy the laws of the state where you reside.
- Complete a home study by a licensed agency.
- Meet the eligibility requirement of the Taiwan Adoption Laws and provide necessary documents to the Taiwanese government.

Time Frame

- It takes approximately 3-4 months to obtain INS approval, complete a home study and prepare a dossier.
- Approximately 4-6 months for referral of a child after dossier is received in Taiwan.
- Photo and medical of the child are available upon referral.
- After acceptance of the referral, approximately 10 months until placement.

Travel

- One parent must travel.
- One or two trips depending on orphanage.
- First/only trip is approximately 1 week.
- If two trips, the second trip is approximately 7-10 days, and occurs approximately 4-6 months after return from 1st trip.
